

visited, incidentally, with a couple of individuals who think this is a substantive change. I have looked it over fairly carefully and studied it pretty carefully and I have a hard time seeing any real substance to the change other than it is very clear that when one denies records you have to give by virtue of this change specific reasons for the denial including, including citations to the statute and subsection thereof for the denial. I think if anything it tightens our language a little bit and it makes it clearer. As far as I am concerned, this is a relatively innocuous bill correcting a technical deficiency and I again move its advancement.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on LB 3? If not, those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. A majority of the membership is required, 25 votes. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 35 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

PRESIDENT: The motion is carried. The bill is advanced. LB 4. Is Senator Hoagland available? LB 44, excuse me. Senator Peter Hoagland.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 44 was a bill introduced by Senator Hoagland. (Read title.) The bill was first read on January 6. It once again was referred directly to General File, Mr. President.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Mr. President and colleagues, this is the annual obsolete statute bill that I have been bringing in. Both Senator Wesely and Senator Landis have mentioned to me provisions they would like to be included in this bill. Now I have a xerox of the sections that are in this bill which I will distribute this morning so you all can have a chance to take it back to your office. But I think I will, Mr. President, ask that this bill be held over for General File debate at a future time so that Senator Landis and Senator Wesely can present their amendments to this bill.

PRESIDENT: Is there objection to the request? If not, LB 44 will be held over on General File. I guess now we will return to bills on first reading.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read the following bills for the first time by title: LB 512 - 528. See pages 255 - 258 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Members of the Legislature, we have the honor
